Foreword

We, the graduating class of '51, in preparing this Sixteenth Edition of the "Reflector," have endeavored to preserve our many fond memories of our happy days here at Broadway High School. May it prove to be one of your most cherished possessions.

Dedication

MR. W. H. JAMESON

In dedicating this book to Mr. Jameson, we wish to express our deep feeling of gratitude for his patience and endurance in keeping our school neat and clean. We will always remember him for giving so much of his time for the betterment of Broadway High School. This "Reflector" is but a small token of our appreciation for the efforts he has put forth in our behalf.

Principal's Message

MR. J. FRANK HILLYARD

It does not matter what other people think of you, of your plans, or your aims. No matter if they call you a crank or a dreamer; you must believe in yourself. You forsake yourself when you lose your confidence. Never allow anybody or any misfortune to shake your belief in yourself. You may lose your property, your health, your reputation, other people's confidence, even; but there is always hope for you so long as you keep a firm faith in yourself. If you never lose that, but keep pushing on, the world will, sooner or later, make way for you.

CLASS WILL

We, the '51 Seniors of Broadway High School, County of Rockingham, and State of Virginia, being of sound mind and memory, do hereby make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament, hereby revoking any will or wills heretofore made by us.

Item I—To the members of the faculty we leave our deepest gratitude for their patience and understanding they have given us during our years at Broadway High School.

Item II—To Mrs. Crist, Mrs. Long, Mrs. Mason, and Miss Crist we leave our appreciation for their untiring efforts, to satisfy our enormous appetites.

To Ellen Blosser, I, Frances Armentrout, will all my extra bobby pins that I couldn't find a use for.

I, Lois Bare, bequeath to Geraldine Carr, my long hair that I have so faithfully kept through the short hair rage.

I, Norma Caplinger, will my position as Editor of the Annual to any Junior girl, who is willing to work as hard at it as I have.

I, Betty Cave, will to Nancy McWilliams my polite manner and pleasing personality.

To Frances Smith, I, Xie Cook leave my quiet ways providing she makes good use of them.

I, Mary Catherine Dellinger, will to any Junior my ability to get along with other people.

To Marilyn Zirk, I, Evelyn Derrow, will my task of leading exercises in Physical Ed. Class.

I, Catherine Dove, leave my glasses to any Junior girl who thinks they can see through them.

I, Irene Evans, will to Charlotte Mongold my height of 5'2" and my love for typing.

To Mabel Thompson, I, Bonnie Fawley leave all the good grades that I failed to receive.

I, Helen Fulk, will my luck in getting to ride in a car to school on Monday morning, to Loretta Reamer.

I, Wilda Getz, leave to no one my interest in the Air Force.

To any Junior, who works hard enough to deserve it, I, Wilma Getz, leave my ability to acquire a diamond.

I, Florence Harpine, do bequeath to Carolyn Wampler, my 5'7" and my short hair cut.

I, Alice Higgs, will to any Junior, my numerous trips to Harrisonburg, providing they don't make a habit of it.

I, Gay Hottinger, leave to Junior Bazzle my gift of gab and my own special brand of giggles.

To Richard Holsinger, I, Mary Davis Kline, will my beloved Chemistry book and my unbreakable habit of arguing.

I, Jeanne Lohr, will to Joyce Whitmore my sparkling, blue eyes and neat appearance.

To Rachel Van Pelt, I, Jean May, leave my pleasant and friendly manner, with understanding that she will use it to make people happy.

I, Lelia May, will to Louise Showalter, my hair and my scatterbrained actions.

To my sister, Phoebe, I, Nancy May, leave my left-over typing paper that I used for stationery.

I, Juanita Murray, leave to Rosa Lee Martz, my favorite corner in the Laboratory in hopes that she uses it for the same purpose I have.

I, Barbara Phillips, bequeath to Ellen Ritchie, my flaming red hair providing she doesn't use it to attract boys.

I, Margaret Renalds, bequeath to Florence Rexrode, my position as Society Editor of the newspaper, hoping she isn't tempted to publish scandals.

To Jean Good, I, Mildred Renalds, leave my fondness for driving cars and my cheerful disposition.

I, Genevieve Runion, will to Virginia Runion my perfect attendance record and the fun I had getting it.

To Nevla Turner, I, Clara Sheets leave my old worn out chewing gum and collection of absence slips.

I, Pearl Showalter, will to any Junior girl, my blond hair and blue eyes, if she uses them to advantage.

I, Joan Skidmore, will to any Junior my position as typist providing they use it to get out of classes as I did.

I, Pauline Smith, will my position as chief doodler of the Senior Class to Elaine Muntzing.

I, Patsy Smucker, will to Loretta Reamer my position as Editor of the Communi-k, if she doesn't put it out on time.

I, Betty Jo Southerly, will to any Junior, my ability to blush.

To George Miller, I, Mary Jane Turner, leave my seat on the bus from the Gap.

I, Arlene Wittig, will my curly hair to Ellen Ritchie, so she won't have to curl hers.

To Eddie Keller, I, Jane Waggoner, will my small stature and my southern accent.

I, Jean Waggoner, will to any Junior my weak mind.

I, Darlene Thomas, leave to any Junior, my retiring manner.

I, Walter Carr, will to Delaney Blaine my movable ears providing he uses them to entertain the girls.

I, Daniel Cline, will to Dirk Freeman my love for the Army, if he doesn't get drafted as I did.

To Bobby Black, I, Brisco Dellinger, will my love for late hours, my red hair and dependable ways.

To any Junior boy, I Sonny Derrow, will my habit of arguing with Mr. Whitmore in Physical Ed. Class.

I, Gene Driver, leave to Patsy Hoover my seat in the Senior room if she lets no other boys sit with her.

I, Bevelyn Fulk, will to Paul Smith my hillbilly singing, if he doesn't join Jimmy Raines.

I, Richard Kline, will to Ward Moyers my love for driving convertibles if he doesn't break the speed limit.

I, Kenneth Knicely, will to Jesse Cline my seat in Howard Cline's car.

To any junior boy, I, J. D. Lantz, will my black wavy hair providing he does not have it set at a beauty parlor.

I, Bill Neff, will to Glade Fulk my ability to out-run all cops, if they have a '36 Ford.

I, Bobby Rhodes, bequeath my funny faces and my contagious chuckle to Brown Hupp.

To Donnie Strickler, I, Hoyt Riddle, leave the water pistol I used on the teachers with good aim.

I, Lowell Ritchie, bequeath the distinction of being the quietest boy in the senior class to Lawson Roadcap.

I, Stanley Roller, will to Kermit Sites my changeable personality of being either good or bad.

To Eugene Reid, I, Lawrence Roller, bequeath my position as Mimeographer with a strong back and a weak mind.

I, Benny Runion, will to John Mathias my sweet smelling hair tonic to keep his hair in place.

I, Bobby Sager, will my fair complexion and blonde hair to Lawson Roadcap.

I, Alvin Strickler, bequeath my height and broad shoulders to any junior who needs them.

I, Donnie Turner, will to Miles Turner my blonde hair and long legs.

To Donnie Stroop, I, Stanley Turner, leave my temper with hopes that he can control it better than I could.

I, John Wagner, will to Don Holsinger my title of "The Mad Chemist."

I, Everette Wampler, leave to Bobby White my red hair and happy disposition.

I, Donnie Moomaw, bequeath to Jackie Driver my talent in basketball with best wishes for success.

I, Junior Mathias, will to Bob White my ability to never be late for class.

I, Richard Litten, will to Cletus Phillips my love for fighting.

Senior Class Journey Ends (1940-1951)

Our deeds still travel with us
from afar
And what we have been make us what we are
—George Elliot

In one hand we hold our diploma, a valuable piece to have on the road of life. In the other hand we hold the remembrances of our senior class, for we are all parting to go our separate ways into the world. It is a moment we will never forget, for really, we have enjoyed those days of toil and fun. But we must think of the bright days ahead of us.

We remember entering the first grade. There were nine little tots: Margaret and Mildred Renalds, Barbara Phillips, Florence Harpine, J.D. Lantz, John Wagner, Pearl Showalter, Mary Davis Kline, and Stanley Turner. Also, all through the years in the grades, many students became members of our class.

Our freshman year was very exciting and joyful, even though we had to work hard. We had many students joining our class this year. They were: Stanley Roller, from Tenth Legion; Alvin Strickler, from Timberville; Bill Neff, Frances Armentrout, Joan Skidmore, Patsy Smucker, and Walter Carr, all from Lacy Springs; Xie Cook, from Tennessee; Irene Evans and Nancy May, from Orebaugh; Bonnie Fawley, from Genoa; Lois Bare and Bevelyn Fulk, from Fulks Run; Benny Runion, Bobby Sager, Genevieve Runion, Richard Litten, and Arlene Wittig, from Cootes Store; Pauline Smith, from Maryland, and also joining our class this year was Brisco Dellinger.

In our sophomore year we were more acquainted and we took part in the various activities such as: band, glee club, basketball, baseball, and track. Mrs. Fahrney was our home-room teacher and we led in the different campaigns. The class consisted of 54 brilliant boys and girls. Those joining us this year were Evelyn Derrow, Hoyt Riddle, Daniel Cline, and Donnie Moomaw.

Becoming juniors, it seemed more like school to us. With Miss Lester as advisor and Margaret Renalds as assistant, we presented the junior play, "Cradle Troubador", which was a big success. We also gave the seniors a fine banquet. The students making an addition to our class this year were: Gay Hottinger, Jean May, Darlene Thomas, Lowell Ritchie, Mary Jane Turner, and Catherine Dove, from Bergton. And also, joining our class were, Donnie Turner, Bobby Rhodes, and Lawrence Roller.

At last we are what we have waited so long to be, seniors! Our home-room teacher is Mr. Whitmore, and our class officers are; J.D. Lantz, President; Stanley Turner, Vice-President; Patsy Smucker, Secretary; and Donnie Turner, Treasurer.

The first big event of the year was the trip to Charlottesville for the George Washington vs. University of Virginia football game. Our chaperons were Mrs. Fahrney and Mr. Whitmore.

As seniors, we publish, bi-weekly, a newspaper known as "The Communi-K." The senior play entitled, "People Are Funny" was presented on March 9. We also are looking forward to the Junior-Senior banquet, class day, getting our class rings, and commencement. Our new additions this year are Betty Lou Cave, Jean and Jane Waggoner, Juanita Murray, and Kenneth Knicely. These additions brought the total number of our class to 62.

We wish to thank the principal, teachers, parents and friends who have had the patience in helping us through-out our years at good old B.H.S.
